

Collective Action Towards Movement Sustainability: Reflections from LGBTQ+ Justice Movements

June 12, 2025
10-11am Pacific / 1-2pm Eastern

Featured Speaker Biography

Galloway (they/them)
Advocacy Manager, Ali Forney Center

Galloway (they/them) is the Advocacy Manager at the Ali Forney Center, where they lead local and statewide policy efforts to advance the rights, safety, and well-being of LGBTQ+ runaway and homeless youth. A proud social worker with nearly a decade of experience in direct service and systems advocacy, Galloway has worked across shelters, youth programs, and coalitions to ensure young people not only survive but thrive.

Grounded in harm reduction and abolitionist values, Galloway brings a trauma-informed, youth-centered approach to all aspects of their work. Their advocacy is shaped by a deep belief in the power of community care, mutual aid, and self-determination. They are a committed participant in movements for transformative justice and racial equity, and they work to dismantle the systemic barriers that criminalize and marginalize queer and trans youth—particularly youth of color.

Through coalition-building, public education, legislative campaigns, and youth leadership development, Galloway continues to fight for policies and practices that center healing, dignity, and collective liberation.

Jasmin Hoo (she/her)
Healing Justice Community Organizer, Lavender Phoenix

Jasmin (she/her) is the Healing Justice Community Organizer for Lavender Phoenix, building power with trans and queer Asians + Pacific Islanders to dismantle the Medical Industrial Complex and create alternative forms of healing rooted in abolition, self determination, and generational wisdom. She draws from her experiences of teaching theater, facilitating social justice education, doing direct action with Asians 4 Black Lives, and her own healing journey. Jasmin honors her teachers who have guided her work: Cara Page, Erica Woodland, Shira Hassan, Leah Lakshmi Piepzna-Samarasinha, Augusto Boal, Prentis Hemphill, bell hooks, adrienne maree brown, and many more.

Lisa Fujie Parks (Moderator)
*Prevention Institute, Vital Village Networks
National Advisory Board Member*

Lisa Fujie Parks, MPH, is a facilitator, organizer, and advocate who partners with communities to foster intersectional racial, gender, economic, and ecological justice. Blending her knowledge of community-based public health with her commitment to community power-building, at Prevention Institute, Lisa facilitates program and strategy development and supports local, state, and national initiatives. Her work as part of the movement for gender and sexuality liberation include service on the Board of Our Family Coalition, a community-based organizing advancing equity for the full and expanding spectrum of LGBTQ+ families and children, and developing, implementing, and evaluating a statewide initiative in California to reduce anti-LGBTQ bias and increase accessibility of services to LGBTQ communities. Lisa also serves as a founding Steering Committee member for the Public Health for Community Power Coalition, and an advisor for Vital Village Networks and the National Association of Climate Resilience Planners.